The Crossflow featured a change in combustion chamber design, using a Heron type combustion chamber in the top of the piston rather than in the head. The head itself was flat with each engine capacity (1098 cc and 1298 cc) featuring different pistons with different sized bowls in 681F and 701M blocks.

Ford Engines - Ford Kent Crossflow engine (1959-84)

You could argue that a Kent engine is a Kent engine whether in Crossflow or Pre-Crossflow form, but if you're after period correctness then the later engine doesn't really look right. The issue is, if you want lots of performance, the Pre-Crossflow's maximum standard capacity is a mere 1498cc, or 1558cc if you use a Lotus configuration.
