I received a letter from Global Test Market offering me a position as a Customer Service Evaluator. The letter came from Beach Haven, NJ. With the letter also came a check written out to my name for $1095.00. In the letter it explains what the funds are for and that for participating I would receive $100.00. I supposedly just need to call the assigned training coordinator to get started and to ...

I've been with Global Test Market for... I've been with Global Test Market for years, about a year or so ago the screen outs became so regular that it became a very disheartening experience, but I persevered until I had enough points to cash out. The recent changes to the site have been the last straw, however. The site takes what seems like an ...
