landmark, 'Intimate Allies' honestly and sensitively probes the state of marriage today. Combining their distinct expertise in biblical studies and counseling, Allender and Longman address five questions in the marriage relationship: Who are we as husbands and wives? What are our roles as husbands and wives?

Allender, a Christian psychologist, and Longman, a theologian, make a great team weaving Biblical truth with practical living. I bought Intimate Allies because I enjoyed another book they co-wrote, The Cry of the Soul, about God's redemptive purpose behind often misunderstood negative emotions.
