Emma Clayton's The Roar is one of those books I picked up to complete a deal - in fact, I picked up both books in this series. Although the books were used as a means to ensure I reached the right number of books to get the offer, I was interested in giving this series a read. In fact, I was rather eager to dive in.

The Roar (The Roar, #1) by Emma Clayton - Goodreads

The Roar is a pretty long book, but it reads fairly easily. I have to admit, there was a long section in the middle of the book that could have been condensed and still maintained the same effect. It was this very long part about Mika working his way through
